

Whereas, the International Translation Association's 65th Annual Conference is held in the City of Portland, Oregon, and and interpreting continue to be a vital factor enabling the City of Portland, Oregon, to Oregon to maintain their strong position in international trade and tourism of Portland and and;

and to promote understanding between people of different languages and cultures, and to literary, scientific, and technical cooperation between nations by facilitating access to scientific information through translators and interpreters; and trade and tourism Whereas, the City of Portland is an international destination for and; and between the United States and many nations of the world; and, this work of the translator and interpreter is vital to the development of trade and tourism and provide a bridge of understanding from one culture to another in that translators and interpreters provide a bridge of understanding from one culture to another in that translators and interpreters provide a bridge of understanding from one culture to another in that translators and interpreters pro-

and Whereas, the City of Portland, Oregon, does hereby proclaim October 31, 2024, to be
"City of Roses," do hereby proclaim

By _____ City Clerk
By _____ Mayor